AIRWORTHINESS DIRECTIVE

This Airworthiness Directive, issued by the Civil Aviation Authority in accordance with the Israeli Air Navigation Regulations applies to an aircraft for which our records list you as the registered owner. It affects aviation safety and requires your immediate attention. No person may operate an aircraft to which an Airworthiness Directive applies, except in accordance with that Directive.

APPLIES TO: Israel Aircraft Industries Models GALAXY and Gulfstream G200 aircraft, all manufacturer serial numbers, certificated in any category.

SUBJECT: G200 Aircraft Maintenance Manual (AMM), introduction of safe life limits to the Airworthiness Limitation Section (ALS).

REASON: Extension of aircraft target life to no more than 20,000 flights, as stated in ALS revision 6, requires life limitation on MLG components.

ACTION:

1. Within the compliance time period, verify that the ALS (Chapter 5 of G200 AMM) is updated to revision 6 or later approved CAAI revision
2. Within the compliance time period, update the operator's approved Aircraft Maintenance Program to incorporate any deviation from the Revision 6, or later CAAI approved revision of Chapter 5 – ALS, as listed in the ALS Log of Revisions.
3. Thereafter, within the threshold interval indicated in that document accomplish the tasks as required.

This AD is revised to authorize the use of later CAAI approved ALS revisions for compliance with this AD.

COMPLIANCE: Compliance with Action 1 and 2 within next 12 months after the effective date of this AD.
Compliance with Action 3 of this AD may be demonstrated by complying with approved Airplane Maintenance Program described in Action 3.

EFFECTIVE DATE: Revision 1: June 30, 2010.
Initial: June 15, 2010.
