Comment # 1

During the review of PAD 16-153, it has been noted that standard effective date is 14 days after the AD issue date.

Cathay would like to ask for an approval from EASA for 30 days from the AD issuance to effective date.

EASA response:

Comment not agreed. The extension of the period between issue date and effective date is only granted by EASA on an exceptional basis ie; complicated cases like several Service Bulletin to be accomplished on the same aeroplane. In that case, only one SB or maximum two is to be accomplished.

No changes have been made to the Final AD in response to this comment.
