| ATA 72   |  | Civil use                  |
| Manufacturer(s):  | TURBOMECA  |                                   |
| Applicability:  | This Airworthiness Directive (AD) applies to TURBOMECA ASTAZOU III A turboshaft engines. These engines are known to be installed on, but are not limited to, Eurocopter SA 341 G Gazelle helicopters.  |                                   |
| Reason:   | The original AD contained requirements for conversion to civil use of engines previously used by an operator not under the control of a civil aviation authority. These requirements have now been incorporated in the Type Certificate Data Sheet (TCDS) E.071 at Issue 03. For the reason described above, AD F-2005-047 is cancelled.   |                                   |
| Effective Date:   | 05 June 2009   |                                   |
| Compliance  | Not applicable   |                                   |
